THREE "DARLINGTON 10" DEFENDANTS SENTENCED

Madison, Wisconsin -- Erik C. Peterson, United States Attorney for the Western District of Wisconsin, announced that Saul Duarte, 31, a citizen of Mexico, was sentenced today by Chief U.S. District Judge Barbara B. Crabb to eight months in prison for bank fraud. Duarte pleaded guilty on September 14, 2007. Angel Zavala Ramirez, 25, and Daniel Avilla, 24, both citizens of Mexico, were each sentenced by Judge Crabb on Friday, November 9, to 12 months and one day in prison for bank fraud. Zavala Ramirez pleaded guilty on September 11 and Avilla pleaded guilty on September 13.

Saul Duarte, Angel Zavala Ramirez, Daniel Avilla and seven other individuals engaged in a scheme to fraudulently obtain money from financial institutions, specifically, First Banking Center, Citizens National Bank, and Amcore Bank, all located in Darlington, Wis.

The defendants obtained counterfeited and fraudulent paychecks purporting to be drawn on the account of "Mexican Cheese Producers, Inc." of Monroe, Wis., with each of these bogus paychecks drawn in the amount of approximately $1,000 and dated approximately April 10, 2007. The defendants possessed, cashed, and attempted to cash these fraudulent paychecks at First Banking Center, Citizens National Bank, and Amcore Bank in Darlington.

Because of the speedy and effective response from law enforcement officers, all ten defendants were arrested in the vicinity of the banks after passing the checks on April 11, 2007. They had passed checks and already obtained $20,398.25; the quick response of law enforcement led to the recovery of this entire amount, and all of this money has been returned to the banks.

In addition, numerous other checks were recovered from the defendants which they intended to pass. Had these additional checks been cashed, the defendants would have obtained an additional $18,256.85.

Five other individuals have previously been sentenced:
